01 WHAT IT IS

A share of what your work earns.

A Revenue Share lets you share a slice of what your work earns with the fans who back it. You raise money up front. Holders receive their part of that income automatically, on a set schedule, for a set term.

FOR YOUR FANS

- Their share of the income you choose to offer
- Payouts sent automatically, in USDC (digital dollars)
- The choice to keep their piece or resell it

FOR YOU

- Money up front for your next project
- You keep ownership of your work and your rights
- You set the share, the number of pieces and the term

02 WHAT YOU CAN OFFER

What you can offer. Eight categories.

Music
Streaming income from a song or an album

Film and series
Income from a film, documentary or show

Live events
Ticket sales from a show, tour or festival

Merch
Sales from a clothing run or product drop

Podcasts and channels
Ad and sponsorship income

Licensing
Income from licensing your music, images or brand

Partnerships
Income from a brand deal

Your business
A store, studio or venue you run

EXAMPLE

You share 10% of a song's streaming income across 1,000 pieces. In a month where the song earns $10,000, $1,000 goes to holders: $1 per piece, paid automatically.

Hold

Receive every payout while you own the piece.

Resell

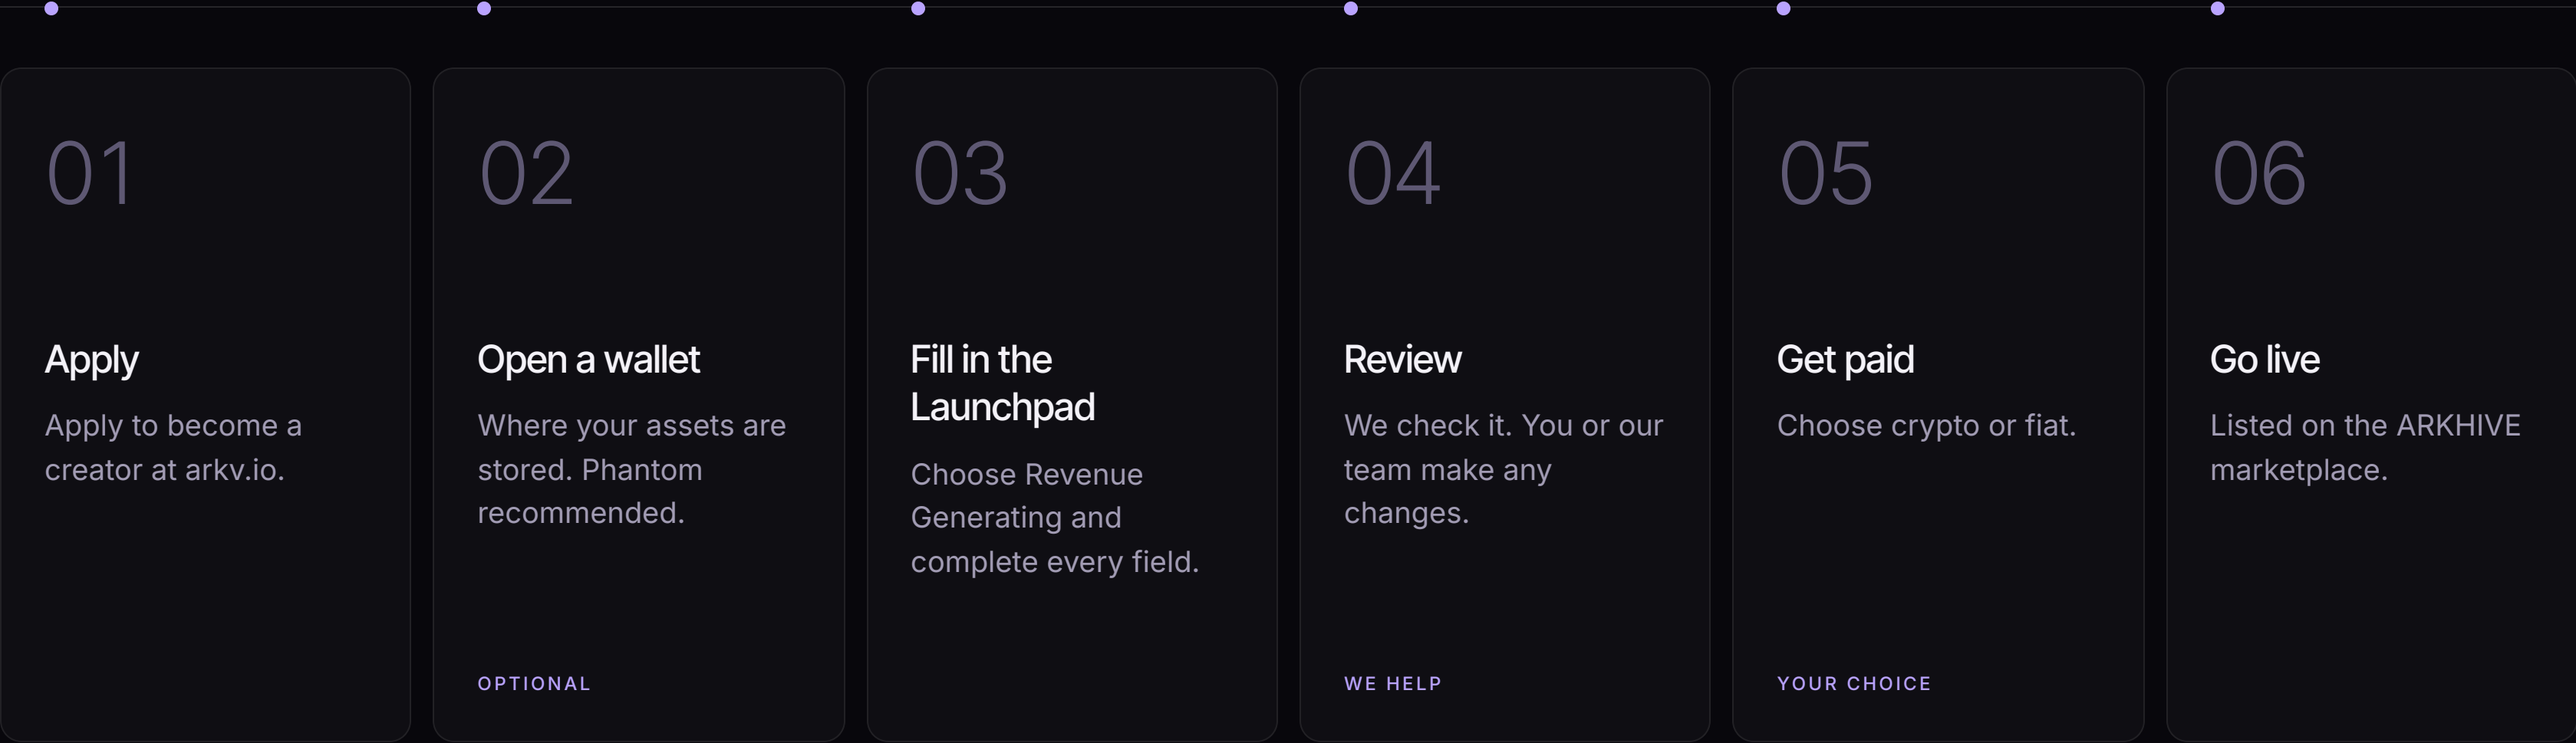

Sell it on the marketplace. The buyer receives future payouts.

Keep earning

Payouts continue until the term ends.

03 HOW IT WORKS

How it works. Six steps, guided.

04 BEFORE YOU START

Before you start. What to prepare.

CHECKLIST

What you need

- ☐ 12 months of income statements (distributor, label or platform)
- ☐ Proof you own the rights to that income
- ☐ The share, number of pieces and term you want
- ☐ A wallet, if you want one (Phantom recommended)

GOOD TO KNOW

How it works in practice

- Fans share in the income only. You keep the work.
- A signed agreement sets the share, the payout schedule and when it ends
- When a piece is resold, the buyer receives the future payouts
- Payouts are sent on the schedule in your agreement
